Fault Description:

To provide the highest levels of after sales service you will be provided with warranty products prior to the return of any failed units. By completing this form you acknowledge that:

- Your warranty terms and conditions include the requirement to return any failed units back to littil at your cost.
- Should you not return failed units to littil within 30 days of the original claim date that you will pay for the replacement products in full. Our standard terms and conditions will apply to the payment of these goods.
- An electrician is required to change over any replacements issued.

Failing agreement to the above we will provide replacement products to you at the time of return to us.
